This Friday we celebrate the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Three events in the life of Our Lady help us understand the assumption. Firstly, we recall the presentation of Jesus in the Temple. Mary offered her firstborn son as a gift to the Lord in accordance with Jewish custom. In doing so, she thanked God for the gift that she had received. The old man Simon praised God when he saw the child but told Mary that a sword would pierce her heart. She was told that she would know sorrow and suffering so that many could open their hearts to her and ask for her intercession. The sword most deeply pierces the heart of Our Lady as she stands at the foot of the cross and sees the death of her son. She is the Mother of Sorrows.

Second event is the meeting with Elizabeth and the time they spend together. It is a time of intense joy as two expectant mothers rejoice with the children in their wombs. John the Baptist, leaping in the womb of Elizabeth, reveals his excitement at meeting the Christ whom he would proclaim not only in the womb but through his life and death. Mary sings with joy of the works of the Lord. She is the Mother of Joy.

Finally, this feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary teaches that at the end of her life Mary is taken, body and soul, to heaven. Eastern iconographers depict the dormition or "falling asleep" of Mary. Since she is conceived without original sin, the "Immaculate Conception", in the name revealed to Bernadette, it is impossible that she would know death and decay. She is the first after Christ to be taken to heaven where she now reigns as queen.

"Blessed are your eyes, for they see, and your ears, for they hear. Truly I tell you, many prophets and righteous people longed to see what you see, but did not see it, and to hear what you hear, but did not hear it."

Strive to enter through the narrow gate, for many, I tell you, will attempt to enter but will not be strong enough. Luke 13:24
